Pretending Is Lying

Synopsis

Pretending Is Lying is a memoir unlike any other. The first book to appear in English by the acclaimed Belgian artist Dominique Goblet, it is at once an intimate account of love and familial dysfunction and an audacious experiment in graphic storytelling. In a series of dazzling fragmentsâskipping through time, and from raw, slashing color to delicate black and whiteâGoblet examines the most important relationships in her life: with her partner, Guy-Marc; with her daughter, Nikita; and with her parents. More than a decade in the making, the result is an unnerving comedy of paternal dysfunction, an aching ambivalent love story (with asides on the Beach Boys), and a searing account of childhood traumaâa dizzying, unforgettable view of a life in progress and a tour de force of the art of comics.
