Customer Reviews

Strong's concordances are very good for understanding the meanings behind the words. This one has smaller type (which is no problem), and the main feature is that the numbering uses the ditto marks (") for the next reference if it has the same number as the one above. This makes for a quick scanning to see if most verses use the same word.

Purchased as a gift and the receiver loves the gift so I'm happy.

Important for its non-conventional translations and its profound Hebrew etymologically-based commentary which affords many a Spinozistic insight. There is much you will not agree with or even be turned-off. However, partake of the work as you would a pomegranate; relish the flesh, but spit-out the pits. Also recommended to be used with Hirsch: Gesenius 'Hebrew and Chaldee Lexicon to the Old Testament Scriptures' - ISDN 0801037360. James Strong 'The Comprehensive Concordance of the Bible' - ISBN 0529063344.
